Government Shinplasters.

The bill to issue twenty millions of Treasury notes, in sums not less than $100, passed the U. S. Senate on Saturday. It will doubtless pass the House. This is a hard money Administration, remember!

WALKER'S LETTER.—Governor Walker's letter of resignation has appeared. It is very long, and very decided. It is reported that the President declines to receive it, and "place it among the archives, which is, of course, all fudge.

THE TAXES—INVESTIGATION.—The Committee appointed at the Citizens' Meeting, last week, to make a thorough investigation of City affairs meet daily, from 2 to 4 o'clock, in the basement of the Albany. It is highly desirable that all who know of any corrupt, dishonest, or illegal transactions, in the various matters of opening, grading, or paving streets; repairing bridges; letting contracts; assessing property, or levying taxes, should give the Committee the benefit of that knowledge, and thus aid them in their investigations.

REDUCTION IN FREIGHTS.—The freight agents of the Michigan Central and Mich. Sou. Railroads at Chicago, give notice that they will carry flour to New York at $1,55 per bbl., and fourth class freight, including hides, beef, pork, lard, cereals of all kinds, &c., at 88 cents per cwt., until January 1st. A small reduction is also made on flour to Boston.

They have been enabled to do this by the intelligence that the New York, Central Rail Road, being still enabled to forward flour and other produce from Albany to New York by barge, would throw off ten cents per bbl. and 2 cents per cwt. of other produce until obliged to send it by rail.

MENDOTA NO 1, OF MADISON.—This fire company, which rejoices in an excellent machine, a tip-top set of members and are "all-live" firemen, will give a Party at the Capital on Christmas night. If any of our Milwaukee firemen can spare the time and dimes, to attend the ball, they may be sure of meeting a warm welcome from the Mendota boys, and of having a right good time at Madison.

CRAWLING OUT.—The Sentinel though repeatedly asked to prove its assertions of the "suffering for food," &c., in this city, has no proof to offer. It gave publication to statements calculated to injure the city and its people, and when taken to task for that injurious publication which was and is false, no matter from whence it emanated, it attempts to crawl out by making a personal assault upon the Reporter of this paper. —News Local.

Injured innocent! The aforesaid reporter has done little else, during the past three months, than make "personal assaults" upon the Sentinel and its conductors, and in this particular instance provoked the rebuke under which he whines, by false and insolent aspersions upon the Rev. Mr. PEDELUPE. It will be time enough for the Sentinel to "prove" its statements when they are questioned by respectable authority. Unhappily the evidence of any man's senses, who chooses to inquire or look around, will suffice to convince him that the sufferings of the poor in this city for food, fuel, and clothing, have not been exaggerated, but are real and pressing, and deserve the sympathy, rather than the sneers, of the press and public.

Walker's Letter.

Special Dispatch to the New York Times.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.

Thee Cabinet is discussing the propriety to receiving Governor Walker's letter of resignation. The Present dislikes exceedingly to place on the Government archives so sound a constitutional argument against his own policy or such disagreeable citations of his own consistency.

A part of the Cabinet favor the proposition to refuse to accept the letter of resignation altogether, but to remove Governor Walker unceremoniously.

The following gentleman are appointed the Select Committee of the Senate on the Pacific Railroad: Messrs. Gwin, Douglas, Bright, Davis, Hunter, Seward, Bell, Foot and Iverson. They nearly unanimously favor the measure.

Herald's Report.

Mr. Douglas has ordered twenty thousand copies of his speech. The Republicans have ordered one-hundred thousand copies.

The President has positively refused to receive Gov. Walker's letter, or permit it to be filed among the archives of the government. Were he to do so, he says he should soon be flooded with similar documents from every subordinate officer who might be dismissed, or should take a notion to resign. Even McKeon, of New York, he fears, might want to file a protest.

Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.

Money still abundant and prime paper in demand. Some names passing for 7 to 10 per cent. Transactions have been moderate on state stock securities at 6 per cent., and some as low as 5. Sterling exchange active; shipments by Wednesday's steamer promise to be large. The bank statement of this week will show a handsome increase in specie, the aggregate probably reaching twenty-nine million dollars. Stocks are still downward and sellers at first board were more numerous than buyers. At the second board stocks were dull and prices still lower,

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.

Mayor Wood has refused to swear in the police clerks appointed by the Police Commissioners—refusing to recognize the authority of that body to appoint said officers. They were accordingly sworn by Recorder Smith and filed the oath of office with Comptroller Flagg, who is understood to stand on the side of the Commissioners in the matter. The contest therefore will be short.

HOLIDAY ADVERTISEMENTS.—Look sharp for the advertisements of wide-a-wake dealers about these days.

Twenty Millions of Shinplasters Ordered—Debate in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.

SENATE.—Mr. Crittenden submitted resolutions that in consideration of the financial condition of the country and embarrassment of the Treasury, the rates of duty established by the tariff of March last ought to be materially increased. Also, in favor of a substitution of a system of a home valuation on important goods. The resolutions lay over.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Treasury Note bill.

Mr. Wilson said the closing hours of the 34th Congress were devoted to efforts to deplete the treasury, and they were now, at the commencement of the 35th trying to fill the treasury, which was now empty. He called attention to some facts connected with the expenditures of the Government. He thought Congress should revise the tariff, so as to restore the duties on iron, cotton and woolen goods to where they were by the tariff of '46. That would increase the revenue of the country something like two millions of dollars, and thus afford some relief. He would vote for the issue of ten millions of dollars in treasury notes, under the circumstances, but not for twenty millions.

Mr. Hunter insisted that ten millions of dollars would not be enough, and it would be necessary to pass another bill next year providing more. It had better be done now, all at once.

Mr. Wilson replied that he should not be surprised if over twenty millions of dollars should be asked for before the close of the session, owing to over-estimates of receipts and a large amount recommended for expenditure in the War and Navy Department.

Mr. Benjamin said Congress authorized the debt to be incurred, and therefore ought to provide means for their payment, instead of charging the Administration with extravagance.

Mr. Seward attributed the revulsion to over-importations and the diversion of capital from its ordinary channels. He did not believe the banks were to blame.

Mr. Davis adverted to the bill as a simple proposition to borrow money to meet the wants of the government, and thought the Executive was responsible for the proper application of the money. Instead of a revenue tariff, he preferred free trade as far as practicable.

Mr. Dixon spoke in favor of the protection of American industry as the best means of restoring confidence, reviving trade, and replenishing the Treasury.

Mr. Collamer opposed the bill, and took occasion to remark that with all the boasting of the sub treasury system and hard money currency, when the pressure came on the whole bottom was knocked out, and application was then made for the issue of irredeemable paper. Why not honestly borrow hard money, and pay interest for it, with which to pay the debts of the government?

Mr. Hunter defended the sub-treasury system. It was established in order that the government should not be embarrassed by bank suspensions in the management of its finances. Treasury notes were the cheapest made in which money can be borrowed, and would not, as charged, be forced on the people to the exclusion of gold and silver in the payment of debts.

About four o'clock an unsuccessful motion was made to adjourn. The majority seemed determined to pass the bill before adjournment.

Mr. Trumbull proceeded to show the extravagance of this as well as the preceding administration, saying it now wants to spend twenty million dollars of notes within the next three months. No necessity for issuing twenty millions had been shown.

Mr. Pugh opposed the bill, regarding it as a strange proposition to come from the Democratic side of the House, to issue twenty million dollars of shinplasters. He was, however, willing to vote for it if it could be reduced so as to provide only for raising so much money as was immediately wanted. He wished to prevent the circulation of these notes as bank notes.

The bill was amended, limiting the operation of the act until the first of January, 1859, and prohibiting notes of a less denomination than $100, and then passed by 31 against 18, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Allen, Bayard, Benjamin, Biggs, Bigler, Brown, Clay, Crittenden, Douglas, Evans, Fitch, Fitzpatrick, Foote, Green, Hale, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson of Arkansas, Jones, Kennedy, Mallory, Mason, Pearce, Polk, Reid, Sebastian, Seward, Stuart, Thompson, of N. J., Wilson and Wright.

Nays—Messrs. Bell, Broderick, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Durkee, Fessenden, Hamilton, Harlan, Johnson of Tennessee, King, Pugh, Simmons, Trumbull and Wade.

At half-past six the Senate adjourned.

DEBATE IN THE HOUSE ON FINANCES.

The House resumed the consideration of Mr. Bennett's resolutions providing for the appointment of a special committee to take into consideration all papers on the subject of a railroad to the Pacific. Mr. Barksdale made an unsuccessful motion to table the resolution. Vote, 94 to 98.

Several incidental questions were determined by yeas and nays. Mr. Florence said that the House had evidence that their was no good cause for sitting on Saturday. He then made an ineffectual motion to adjourn. The subject was then passed over, and the House went into committee on the Treasury Note bill. Mr. J. G. Jones explained the provisions of the bill, which he said were similar to those heretofore passed under both Whig and Democratic Administrations. He would endeavor to get a vote on it to-day.

Mr. Ritchie called attention to the fact that there are two sets of Democrats, one theoretical who will have nothing but gold and silver, and the other practical, who will have anything they can get, and now ask for Treasury notes.

Mr. Banks remarked that statesmen at all times had asserted that the resort to treasury notes was of doubtful expediency, and dangerous in principle, and should never be adopted if any other measure of relief could be obtained. It is not true that the Government cannot obtain relief except through treasury notes. There never was a period at which a loan could be effected, either for a short or long time better than now, as the country is richer now than it has ever been before. He wished the bill amended authorising the issue of Treasury notes only in case it shall be found impracticable to effect a loan on Government Stock, bearing six per cent interest—the aggregate sum borrowed not to exceed twenty millions. Circumstances are different now to what they were when the note bill of 1846 was passed—there was then a war with Mexico.

Mr. Cobb, interrupting, reminded him there was a prospect of a war with the Mormons.

Mr. Banks replied that there was here a representative from Utah, with the same standing that Cobb has, and therefore, it could not be said that we are at war with Utah, but there was a prospect of a war in another direction, from which the Administration could not be relieved by the issue of Treasury notes.

Mr. Wilson argued that Congress ought to prefer to supply the public necessities by treasury notes rather than by loans for a long period.—There may be no necessity for resorting to a loan but at this time, when threatened by a deficiency in the revenue, it is important that the public credit should be maintained.

Mr. Bishop supported the bill on the ground that the notes would go into circulation and be used as a medium of exchange. It would meet the necessities of the government, and benefit the business of the country, which is not in as prosperous a condition as Mr. Banks describes. It may be true that there is more money than ever in the country, but it is not available. He (Mr. Bishop) would be glad if the gentleman from Massachusetts would point out where it may be found.

Mr. Davis, of Maryland, opposed the bill.—There was no period fixed when the notes can be presented for redemption, and they would therefore continue its circulation as irredeemable currency, based on the credit of the government—the striking down of the banks in the country being recommended by the President's message. It may be that the issue of twenty million dollars of treasury notes is designed to fill a void. The dominant party mean to make and substitute the paper of the Treasury for the paper of the banks.

The committee then arose, and the House adjourned.

MONTGOMERY, Dec. 21.

The Alabama Legislature has legalized the bank suspension of specie payments until the 18th of November next.

SCHENECTADY, Dec. 21.

Thirteen trains of 45 and 40 cars each, loaded with freight from the west, arrived here to-day.

TORONTO, C. W., Dec. 18.

At a dance at a house of ill-fame at London, C. W., last night, a party of rowdies forced their way into the house, and a butcher named Harding with a revolver fired into the crowd several times, shooting Hughes Wilson, son of John Wilson, M. P., for this city, also Sweetmen, Stevens, Merrick, Coots and two other men and one woman. Wilson was mortally wounded, and has since died. The rest are not dangerously wounded. Harding has not yet been arrested.

CITY MATTERS.

Robbery and Murder—Arrest of the Murderer.

In the Chicago Journal, of Saturday evening last, we find the following account of a desperate murder:

SHOCKING MURDER AT BLUE ISLAND.—The people of the usually quiet village of Blue Island were thrown into the most intense excitement yesterday, by the discovery of the dead body of a man lying in the grass about three miles north of that place. In the road, opposite the spot where the body was found, was a large pool of blood, and leading from it, directly to the body, was a bloody trail, showing that the man had been murdered in the road and dragged into the grass. On turning the body over, the face presented a shocking sight. A ball hole was found in the socket of the left eye, and one also in the hat band, as though the hat had been jerked down over the face before the shot was fired

The body was recognized by Mr. Seyferth, the keeper of a hotel at Blue Island, as that of a farmer named Lauermann, from Western Prairie, Ind., who stopped at his house on his way to Chicago with a horse team and a load of oats. He left the house before daylight in the morning. A young man, well dressed, with a gold watch and chain, stayed at the same hotel that night, and got permission to ride into town with Lauermann, saying that he had no money.

Telegraphic dispatches were sent to Captain Yates, and the officials will doubtless investigate the matter thoroughly.

The murderer was arrested in this city, yesterday morning, and his story is a strange one. His name is JOHN STRAB, a Swiss by birth, about 21 years of age, youthful and inoffensive in appearance. He came to this city, a few days since, with $400 in gold, the proceeds of drafts, or checks, drawn by a German, at Blue Island, on a house at Chicago, of which STRAB had heard, and which he had obtained from the Chicago P. O., by falsely representing that he was the party to whom the letter, enclosing them, was directed.

Having obtained the money, he came into Milwaukee, put up at the Hotel Wettstein, and looked round him for a trade. He soon drove a bargain with Mr. Cordier, who keeps a Lager Beer Saloon in the basement of Mayor Cross' block, and agreed to buy an interest in the establishment for $500. Of this sum he paid $50 down, adding that he had a good team and other property at Chicago, which he would dispose of and pay the balance of the purchase money, by, or before the 1st of January.

Accordingly, he left here for Chicago a few days since, having bought a revolver and had bullets cast before he started. Leaving Chicago, on Thursday, he fell in with his victim, as above narrated, and after riding with him a couple of miles or more, coolly put his revolver to the back of Lauermann's head and blew out his brains! He then hid the body of his victim, in the grass near the road-side, drove into Chicago, sold the load of oats for 24 cents a bushel, and finding no market there for the wagon and team, kept on towards Milwaukee.

Meantime, the Chicago officers, apprised of the robbery of the drafts, came hither in pursuit of the thief. They arrived Saturday night, and put up at the Hotel Wettstein. There, through policeman Kessler, they got the description and track of the supposed thief and lay in wait for him. Yesterday morning, Strab came into town, driving the team of the murdered man, and, stopping at Cordier's, went in to close the bargain.—Cordier, who had heard of the robbery, but not of the murder, kept Strab in conversation, while he sent a messenger for the police. Kessler immediately came down, arrested Strab, and conveyed him to the Station House And then and there, being questioned by the Chief, Mr. Beck, and others, he confessed the whole crime.

It appears that, in order to obtain the team, which he said he owned, he had gone deliberately to work to murder the first man he chanced to meet, who happened to own one. Lauermann, his victim, was an entire stranger to Strab, and had kindly invited him to ride to Chicago. In return for this, Strab coolly and deliberately murdered him, and then drove quietly at Chicago, hoping to dispose of both load and team!—When questioned about himself, yesterday, he gave his name, age and birth place, stating that his father was dead and he believed his mother also; acknowledged all the facts of the murder; stated that he committed the deed in order to get the team, and, on being asked if he knew that hanging was the penalty for this bloody crime, coolly replied "Yes!" It seems incredible that one so young, and, apparently, so inoffensive, could have been guilty of such a bloody, treacherous and inhuman murder. Strab is now at the Police Station, in this city, awaiting a requisition from the Governor of Illinois.

P. S.—A Police Officer arrived here, by the noon train from Chicago, yesterday, into whose hands our chief of Police, Mr. Beck, delivered the murderer. He was, accordingly, taken back to Chicago, by the afternoon train.

TRIAL OF THE NEW ENGINE.—The new and very handsome engine, built at Button's celebrated factory, Westfield, N. Y., for Fillmore Engine Company No. 6, of this city, was tried yesterday, by the members of the Company, in presence of the Chief Engineer, several of the Aldermen, and a large number of citizens. The weather was unpropitious, the snow falling fast, and a light northeast wind blowing. Nevertheless, the new engine performed well, throwing a horizontal stream through 100 feet of hose and an inch and an eight nozzle, 191 feet.

All parties seemed satisfied with the result of the trial. The hose used on the occasion was manufactured by G. Pfister & Co., of this city, and stood the test as well as any hose we have ever had here. In the evening, the Company entertained a number of friends, including the builder of their machine, Mr Button, at their House, in the Third Ward, and had a good time together.

THE BALL TO-NIGHT.—The annual ball of Rough and Ready Engine Co., comes off at Young's Hall to-night. No. Four's ball is usually one of the pleasantest parties of the season, and we expect they will have a merry time of it this evening. An excellent supper will be served up by Messrs. Herschede & Scheudt, and Hess' band will discourse sweet music for the dance.

ANOTHER PIGEON SHOOT.—Col. Crouse of the Layton House, is making preparations for a great "Pigeon Shoot," on Christmas. There will be a smart chance for our best shots to distinguish themselves, as three hundred birds have been secured for the occasion. There is hardly any pastime in which there is more excitement or sport than in an old-fashioned "pigeon-shoot."

A CHRISTMAS EVE FESTIVAL.—The Sunday School scholars of the Spring street Methodist Episcopal church design giving a Festival in the church, on Christmas eve, for the benefit of the school. As they always succeed in getting up their Festivals in fine style, we have no doubt the present one will be well attended.

FURNITURE SALE.—The sale of Furniture by Caleb Wall, takes place this morning at 10 o'clock, on Jefferson street, between Mason and Wisconsin. The ladies are invited to attend.—Wall also has a sale of Furniture on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at the city land office. An advertisement of these sales will be found in another column this morning.

LECTURING AT A DISCOUNT.—The Chicago Journal, in mentioning the poor success of the first lecture before the Young Men's Association of this city, says that the Association of that city met with similar ill success, and that it is contemplated to abandon the course before its completion.

RUNAWAY.—There was another bad runaway yesterday morning at about 8 o'clock, in the 3d ward. A pair of horses attached to an empty wagon, driven by a little boy, became frightened up on Vliet street, and ran down to the corner of Fourth street, turning which the little driver was thrown off with great violence, and very seriously injured. He was picked up senseless, his head being badly cut and otherwise seriously bruised. His name is Stutz, and the team which he was driving belonged to his father. The horses continued running down Fourth street clearing the side walk for several blocks, and leaving fragments of the wagon scattered behind them, when they brought up somewhere in the 4th ward.

ANOTHER!—Between 5 and 6 o'clock last evening, a horse with an empty wagon behind him, sans driver, went thundering by our office down East Water Street. Where he brought up we could not learn. The last we saw of him he was going towards Walker's Point Bridge—in the middle of the street for a wonder—at a rate that "2 40" would'nt begin to express.

Look out for runaways!

CHURCH ORGANIZED.—A church of 45 members, was organized in this city on Sunday last, by Rev. Messrs. Spees & Day, to be known as the Holland Presbyterian Church of Milwaukee, and to be connected with the Presbytery of Milwaukee N. S. About 20 additional members will unite with the church as soon as their letters are procured. A house of worship, capable of accommodating a congregation of 300, is to be erected forthwith, most of the means for which have already been subscribed. The church is to be located on or near Plankinton's Addition. The enterprise is a vigorous one, and its prospects are very flattering.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 21.—John Hammel, Jas Johnson, and Patrick Moloney, were fined $1 each for being drunk.

DISORDERLY.—August Moss, fined $15 and costs, and Wm. Stickney, fined $10 and costs.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—Wm. Foley fined $25 and costs.

SERVED THE FELLOW RIGHT.—An old offender who has been frequently fined and imprisoned for maltreating his wife, was brought up before the police justice, yesterday, for again abusing his wife shamefully, and in order to teach the fellow a lesson, Justice Wolworth sent him to jail for 6 months in default of $1500 bail to keep the peace. Served him right, say we.

FIRST BALL OF NO. 7.—The new Fire Company, organized this year in the Eighth Ward, Germania No. 7, give their first Ball, on the evening of the 26th instant, at Stamm's Hall. They intend to get up a superior entertainment, and as the Company is composed of a first-rate set of men, and the proceeds of their Ball go to fit them out for service, we bespeak for them the liberal patronage of the public.

REMOVAL.—Mr. N. D. Dearborn, Engraver has removed his quarters from 200 East Water street, to the jewelry store of A. B. Vancott, on the corner of East Water and Wisconsin streets. We have been shown some very neatly executed specimens of card and door plate engraving done by Mr. Dearborn, and it is in fact now pretty well known in our city that he can do as neat a job of fine engraving as can be done by any engraver in the country.

HAMLET TO-NIGHT.—This evening, at the Albany Hall, Mr. Coombs is announced to read Hamlet. We have already dwelt at length upon the character of the entertainment which may be expected, and have only now to hope, that a crowded house will enjoy it.

☞ MACK BROS. have a word or two to say to people who are looking about for presents.—In these times, if the best of goods can be purchased as cheaply as they advertise them, it is well that the fact should be known.

THE HUTCHINSONS.—This celebrated musical family are on their way to our city. They are always greeted with full houses wherever they go.

Marine Intelligence.

THE SCHOONER C. G. THOMPSON.—The attempt to raise this vessel has been abandoned for the present. A diver went down and attempted to get a chain under her, but she was found so deeply imbedded in the sand that it was impossible to effect anything. It is extremely improbable that she can ever be raised.

THE ATLAS.—This vessel, which ran ashore on her passage from Cleveland to this port, four miles below Bar Point, has been stripped and abandoned. She is badly injured, and it is impossible to get her off in the spring that will make it pay. She is an old vessel, built in 1842, and re-built in 1845, and is worth only $1,500. She belongs to John Andrews, of Detroit, and is not insured. No cargo.

THE NAPOLEON.—This propeller, whose total loss near Saugeen we chronicled a few days since, was built in 1854, and was owned by Capt. Neal, who sailed her. She was valued at about $4,500, and was insured, as we have already stated, for $4,000 in the Northwestern.

ONTONAGON HARBOR.—Capt. Fraser, of the Mineral Rock, informs us that on her last visit to Ontonagon, he found that the sand bar formerly situated outside the harbor, and opposite the end of the pier, has changed its location to a point inside the harbor, about 100 feet beyond the end of the pier. When the ice breaks up, the current of the river will, no doubt, force the bar back to the neighborhood of its old position.

TUESDAY MORNING, DEC'R 22.

Popular Sovereignty.

It is sport to see the engineer hoisted with his own petard.

The dogma of "popular sovereignty" was an invention of Senator Douglas and other Northern Doughfaces, in consultation with the leaders of the Southern Democracy, with which to befool and befog the Northern people into a continuance in the ranks of the party. The pro-slavery faction thought they saw their way clear to such a use of the principle, by throwing in outside influence and votes to manage things in Kansas, so that they could secure a Slave State; while Douglas and his set cared not a maravedi whether Kansas was free or slave, so long as the party might hold together, and he (Douglas) be at the top of the heap.

The result has not answered the expectations of the plotters. The free state men went to Kansas in such numbers that, despite the management of the conspirators, the violence and outrage of the invaders, and all the help which the Administration could afford, "popular sovereignty" turned out favorably to the free state men. This was a consummation not devoutly wished by the Slavery Propagandists, and forthwith they determine to upset popular sovereignty, and they call upon their Northern tools to aid them. They say—"You know well what was the aim and object of the movement for "squatter sovereignty," and that all the talk about its glories was for the purpose of making Kansas a slave state, and you must not draw back now; let the principle go, and help us to the end." Mr. Buchanan responds with alacrity, with all whom Executive patronage can influence. But Douglas is shrewd. He knows that the northern people, a sufficient number of whom were deceived in 1856 to leave his party a bare electoral majority, cannot be deceived again, and that the Democratic party is at its last kick as a "national" institution. Accordingly, in the hope of preserving his influence in his own State long enough to send him back to the Senate when his present term expires, he stands up for "popular sovereignty;" and this hope, of preserving State influence, and State offices, it is which leads northern democratic papers to support him against the President. Meantime, the work of revolutionizing public opinion goes bravely on. No better illustration of its progress is possible than its extorting "shrieks to Freedom" from Douglas and his adherers.

THE SENATE COMMITTEES.—Our Southern friends, who rule the roast at Washington, carry things with a high hand. The most important committees in the U. S. Senate are those on Foreign Relations, Finance, Commerce, Military Affairs, Naval Affairs, Judiciary, Post Offices, Public Lands, and Territories. The Chairmen of these, in their order, are—

Mason, of Virginia.
Hunter, of Virginia.
Clay, of Alabama.
Davis, of Mississippi.
Mallory, of Florida.
Bayard, of Delaware.
Yulee, of Florida.
Stuart, of Michigan.
Douglas, of Illinois.

The last, the Committee on Territories, is thus constituted:—Douglas, Jones, Sebastian, Fitzpatrick, Green, Collamer, Wade.

Pleading for Douglas.

Forney's Philadelphia Press does not like the sort of warfare commenced by the Richmond South upon Senator Douglas. It urges that Douglas' "whole career is crowded with victories won for the South." It appeals to his support of the annexation of Texas—his championship of the Fugitive Slave Law—his "defiant attack upon the fanatics of Chicago"—his late campaign against "Northern pulpits and presses"—as a "a record of bright deeds which ought to be forever remembered by the Southern people."

It is bad!

Forney mutters thunder, and warns the South in large capitals, saying:

There is a point beyond which forbearance may cease to be a virtue. IT HAS BEEN REACHED, "GENTLEMEN OF THE SOUTH!"

☞ The opposition editors, says the New Haven "Register," are as "busy as the devil in a gale of wind," hoping to see a split among the democrats on the Kansas question. They cannot understand how democrats can differ, on non essentials, and yet keep their organization intact, and their ranks firm.—News.

The "opposition editors" have not the least desire to interfere in the matter. "It is a very pretty quarrel as it stands," and our interference might spoilit. No doubt the Register and News would be glad to make out that the question at issue was a "non-essential," and that, however it be decided, the party ranks would stand "firm." Such, assuredly, are not the present indications in the political skies.

WISCONSIN DEMOCRATIC.—The official returns of the State election in Wisconsin are at last all in, except LaFointe county, which is reported to have given a Democratic majority. The question of the choice of Governor is therefore settled. J. B. Cross, Democrat, is elected by 262 majority over Randall. Nearly 100,000 votes were cast. Of course the telegraph reporters have not heard of this result, as it is a Democratic victory.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

The N. Y. Herald and other democratic organs rejoice, with the Journal of Commerce, over the above item. It is a bogus one, however. The report that "J. B. Cross, Democrat, is elected" Governor of Wisconsin, is just as fabulous as the News' story that J. B. Cross, Mayor, had effected a loan in New York at 12 per cent, to complete our Harbor and School Houses.

DEPRECIATIONS IN VALUE.—The Boston Transcript states that the personal estate of an opulent merchant who died in Boston less than four years ago, valued in 1854 at $1,300,000, and consisting mainly of railway shares and bonds, has shrunk during the two past years more than a million dollars. The manufacturing stocks owned by a single family in the same city have also depreciated more than a million dollars in value within two years.

WALKER'S EPITAPH.—"Peninsula," the Washington correspondent of the Detroit Tribune, after a solemn notice of Robert J. Walker's funeral sermon, preached by himself, says that he (Walker) will expose himself "as a victim of misplaced confidence" with a benevolent face and white cravat, write himself the following epitaph:—

"Here lies an awful example of one
Who rode two horses,
While going at full speed in Opposite directions!"—

And lay himself decently in the grave.

THE TELEGRAM CONTROVERSY.—A London paper says that Messrs. Longman, having taken the advice of the highest authorities of the present day upon questions relating to the English language and literature, have signified their intention of having the word "telegram" henceforth inserted in all dictionaries published by them, and that it will accordingly appear as a recognized word in the forthcoming edition of Johnson's Dictionary, which is to be published under the superintendence of Dr. Latham.

To the Records!

The Philadelphia Press, in hunting over the Senate records, finds the following protest, made by sundry Democratic Senators against the admission of California as a State. Four of the signers are new members of the Senate, and determined to force Kansas into the Union, under a Constitution made by a Convention not authorized by Congress, and elected by only a small portion of the people of Kansas—without any legal safeguards thrown around the ballot box—and not only without evidence of its having the assent of a majority of the people for whom it is designed, but with evidence that the majority of the people are decidedly opposed to it.

The fact that California came in as a free State, while Kansas would come as a Slave State under that Constitution, of course makes all the difference with these gentlemen. Here is their protest in 1850:

Their grounds for opposition to the admission of California were:

1. That it gave the sanction of law, and thus imparted validity to an unauthorized action by a portion of the inhabitants of California.

2. Without any legal census or other evidence of their possessing the number of citizens necessary to authorize the representation they may claim.

3. Without any of those safeguards about the ballot-box which can only be provided by law, and WHICH ARE NECESSARY TO ASCERTAIN THE TRUE SENSE OF A PEOPLE.

4. As "not having sufficient evidence of its (the) Constitution) having the assent of a majority of the people for whom it was signed.

The protest was signed by Senators J. M. Mason, H. M. T. Hunter, A. P. Butler, R. W. Barnwell, } Virginia.

H. L. Turney, Tennessee.
Pierre Soule, Louisiana.
Jefferson, Davis, Mississippi.
D. R. Atchison, Missouri,
Jackson Morton, D. L. Yulee, } Florida.

Purging the Party.

The N. Y. Herald, which was a zealous FREMONT paper during the last Presidental election, but changed sides as soon as Mr. BUCHANAN was elected, and now assumes to be a leading Administration organ, thus calls upon the Democracy to drum out of camp such "deserters," as Senator DOUGLAS, Gov. WALKER, Mr. FORNEY, and all others who think and act with them on the new Kansas issue:

"There are other men of the party in the North, who like Douglas, Walker and Forney, desire a new shuffle of the cards, and a new deal for the spoils of the succession; and here lies the 'dead point of danger.'

"Let it be understood, however, that they who are not with the Administration upon this vital issue are among the enemies of the Administration, and the mutineers will soon be diminished to a corporal's guard." When Democratic leaders and organs become special objects of admiration to the followers of Wm. H. Seward, they should be drummed out of the Democratic camp. Mr. Walker and Mr. Douglas have been expecting something of this sort, no doubt, and in a matter so reasonable as this they should not be disappointed."

We are waiting, with some curiosity, to see what our Federal office-holders are going to do. The News, our postmaster's organ, has become suddenly dumb on this subject; the Fond du Lac Union, which represents our U. S. Marshal, is manifestly considering and meantime silent; the Madison Argus, on the other hand, the editor of which is just now in hot pursuit of a Federal office, stands up stoutly for the Administration; the Appleton Crescent and Prairie du Chien Courier ditto.; the Janesville Standard, Madison Patriot, and Sheboygan Journal, are for Douglas and against the Administration. So far, indeed, as the "democracy" of Wisconsin are concerned, it is tolerably certain that the "deserters" will out number "the faithful." But then this will leave the fewer mouths to feed at the Federal crib; and that, in these times, is quite a consideration.

A Badly Mixed Affair.

To represent the 14th Senatorial district, two persons will present certificates at Madison, Wm. T. BUTLER and WM. CHAPPELL. The "five towns" are the source and sent of the difficulty.

The Jefferson Co. Supervisors don't recognize the 5 towns as a part of that County, and would not count them. So, BUTLER having a majority in the other towns, the Jefferson County Board gave him the certificate.

But the "five towns" ought to be counted somehow, so the Dodge Co. board met and counted them, and gave CHAPPELL a certificate of election.

But Dodge Co. constitutes the 22d district, and the board of that county cannot, it would seem, have anything to do with the 14th.

And both parties allege fraud in the canvass of the Bridge Creek order. Both are democrats, and perhaps, when they have succeeded in making the proper issue, and exposing the frauds, it may turn out that ENOS, the Republican candidate, was legally elected, after all!

A Nice Little Bill to Pay.

It is refreshing, in these easy times, to have such a bill presented to Uncle Sam for payment as the Tribune alludes to, in the following article:

The enterprising Territories of Oregon and Washington have handed in to Congress their little bill for scalping Indians and violating squaws two years ago. The "War," it will be recollected, was stigmatized by Gen. Wool, then commanding on the Pacific, as wholly wanton and unprovoked—having been deliberately got up by the Whites for the purpose of running a bill on good easy Uncle Sam. Neither Oregon nor Washington has ever paid anything of consequence for the Public Lands absorbed by their white inhabitants, but they are ready enough to knock a bottom board out of the Treasury and load up their several carts with "the Spoils."—They have had a "Commision on the Indian War-Claims" sitting for nearly a year past, which has made up the following cheering aggregates:

Number of volunteer troops in Oregon enrolled in the late Indian war	1,526
Amount of volunteers' pay reported by the Commission	$1,409,604 53
Amount of expenses in support of volunteer service in Oregon	3,040,344 80
Total war debt in Oregon	$4,449,369 98
Number of volunteer troops in Washington	1,896
Reported volunteers, pay of same	$549,538 06
Expenses in support of volunteers in Washington	971,882 39
Total war debt in Washington	$1,481,435 45
Total war debt in both Territories	5,931,844 78

The Territory of Oregon furnished about one-third of the men to the service of Washington, and nearly two thirds of the supplies used in the war.

The claims of American citizens for French Spoliations of our Commerce prior to 1800, are now something over fifty eight years old. So far as we can learn, they are righteously due as any public debt ever was. After these shall have been paid half a century or so, we trust the claims of the Oregon and Washington Indian fighters will come up for consideration.

LIBERAL OFFER.—Some of the enterprising citizens of the town of Lagrange, Illinois, being desirous of having a daily paper to set forth duly the advantages of the place as the very centre of the Railroad system of the world, applied to the editor of the Weekly Bulletin to publish such a paper. That wide-awake editor, always ready to serve the public, replied that if the citizens would raise $7,500 and place it in his hands he would publish a daily as long as the money lasted. Sensible man.

EXTENSIVE AMOUNT OF SPECIE.—The Bangor Whig says that at the time the injunction was served on the Suffolk Bank, Maine, they had safely stowed away in their vaults, in specie, the enormous sum of four dollars and seventeen cents!

MR. PARROTT.—MARK PARROTT, the delegate from Kansas in Congress, is a native of Camden, South Carolina, but was educated in Ohio. He went to Kansas in 1854, and gained his first standing among the free state men by acting as counsel for Robinson and the others who were arrested and tried for "treason."

Disasters on the Lakes.

The Chicago Democratic Press of Saturday thus groupes together the losses, in property and life on our Lakes, for the past ten years as far as the records have been kept:

The following is a table of the losses of property during the past ten years:

1848	$404,880	1853	$ 864,350
1849	841,250	1854	2,187,825
1850	544,440	1855	2,797,838
1851	745,526	1856	3,038,874
1852	991,015	1857	1,920,315
Total loss in ten years			$13,821,253

The loss of life during the present year is 221 lives. In 1854 the loss of life was 119; in 1855, 119; and in 1856, 407—making a total in four years of 865 lives.

The aggregate value of the Commerce of these Lakes now exceeds three hundred millions per annum, and yet the President of the United States does not deem this vast interest worthy of the slightest mention in his Message, or entitled to aid, or protection from the General Government.

TAX MEETING AT MADISON.— The citizens of Madison held a tax payers meeting on Saturday evening, the spirit of which, and the reasons for which, may be found in the following resolutions, which we find in the Patriot:

RESOLVED, That a Committe of twenty, to consist of five from each Ward, be appointed by the Chair, to take into consideration the present evils that we endure, and the Report at an adjourned meeting, to be held at this place, at such time as this meeting shall determine.

RESOLVED, That said Committee be requested to take into consideration and report.

1st.—Suitable and efficient amendments to be obtained to the City Charter, to arrest the Extravagance, Misapplication and Waste of the City's resources, and to protect the inhabitants from being further PLUNDERED BY CITY OFFICIALS!!!!

2d.—To take into consideration the enormity of the City Taxes, and report whether the same has been legally levied and whether it is expedient to pay, or resist the collection of the same.

3d.—To take particular notice of the fact that our City is now over $200,000 in debt and that about $112,000 of Taxes [making $372,000! during one year and ten and a half months of our city's existence.—REP.] have been levied during the creation of said debt, and in addition thereto, and report their opinion of the necessity of the same, and.

4th.—To take into consideration generally, the misapplication and waste of the Public Funds, in all Departments of the City Government, and to report the most speedy and efficient remedy.

LAKE HARBORS.—The Chicago Press has an article upon the subject of disasters upon the lakes, in which it very justly animadverts upon the conduct of the Democratic party, which can find no warrant for expenses for the safety of life and property away from salt water. It says:

"It is a noticeable fact, in the disasters of this year, as indeed it has been in those of former seasons, that the direct cause of the immense loss of property on the lakes, is imperfect harborage. Take Lake Michigan for instance. There is not a harbor into which a vessel can run for safety south of the Manitou Islands. All other harbors, from gross neglect by the general government, are more traps into which vessels are allured but to be dashed to pieces on sand bars, old piers, and useless breakwaters.'

The remarks of the Press are generally true to as the condition of the old government works at Chicago and elsewhere, but we have, here in Milwaukee, at a cost of some $200,000, built a harbor which will furnish a safe entrance at any time. We should be glad to have our Chicago friends inspect the work, and urge their corporate authorities to profit by our example.

The Pestilence in Portugal.

From the Philadelphia Press.

In a letter received from Lisbon, dated Nov. 7, there is the following interesting account of a recent epidemic there, and the conduct of the King, Pedro II., in the distressing circumstances:

"On the young King's birthday, September 16, broke out a pestilence, which has since stricken thousands of the inhabitants. Some call it yellow fever, some typhus; it is probably a mixture of the two, and has been very fatal. There is something very insidious in its nature—it advances to the various quarters of the town so slowly and surely, and carries off its victims so swiftly. The Portuguese are a timid nation, and over a hundred thousand persons have left the city. Cintra and the adjacent villages are full to overflowing, and there is scarcely a person of society in town. It is sad to go into the city, it is so silent and deserted; the shops are closed, business is suspended, and one meets only funerals and litters carrying the sick to the hospitals.

"The young King has behaved most nobly.—He had gone to his country palace for a month, but upon hearing of the appearance of the fever, he immediately returned and since then has done all that he could. The physicians pronounced the disease contageous, but he has never hesitated in the path of duty, though implored by his old councillors, with tears in their eyes, not to risk his life. He visits the hospitals at all hours, and cheers the sick and dying with kind words and his own sweet smile. It is very touching to see him going about, so young in years with all the care and anxiety of a father for his people. One of his aunts said to a Portuguese lady of our acquaintance, 'Poor boy! he is heart-broken; he goes to his room, and I believe it is to weep.'

"For Portugal, such a cypher among the nations, to have yielded such a flower of majesty, is indeed a wonder and a portent."

BABYLONIAN BANK BILL.—Among the curious discoveries lately made in the region of Babylon, a lot of Nebuchadnezzar's Bank Notes is mentioned by Mr. Loftus. He was exploring the ruins of Warka, (by some supposed to be "Ur of Chaldees,") when one day he met with a number of small brick tablets, covered on both sides with minute characters. There were forty of them in the locality, (perhaps the strong box of some Babylonish money-lender or note-shaver,) varying from two to four and a half inches in length, by one to three inches in breadth. Many others were irrevocably damaged or broken. Sir Henry Rawlinson found the larger ones to be notes issued by the Government, for the convenience of circulation, representing certain values, expressed by weight of gold and silver, and redeemable at the royal treasury. They bear the names of Nabopallasar, Cyrus, &c., (626 to 532 B. C.) The precise day of issue is given in every instance.—The smaller tablets seem to be private notes of hand, or acknowledgments of indebtedness.

These writings are, of course, in the same wedge-shaped character that prevails in all ancient inscriptions of that part of the world, and which has but recently been deciphered. Bricks, tablets, and cylinders of burnt clay, &c., served for paper; and the records of those ancient dynasties, laid up in the palaces of kings, in temples and in libraries, have withstood the destroying influence of time, and come to us legible and fresh from the ruins of burnt cities, after the lapse of 2,500 or 3000 years.

STATISTICS OF BURLINGTON.—The Racine Journal is furnished by a correspondent with sundry statistics of the town of Burlington in that county. We copy the following:

"It now contains 1,800 inhabitants; 860 families; 8 stores; 19 groceries & brewery; 1 liquor rectifying establishment; 8 shoe shops; 5 tailor and clothing shops; 5 blacksmith shops; 3 taverns; 1 barber shop; 1 hardware store; 2 cabinet shops; 1 bakery; 1 watchmaker and jeweller's shop; 2 drug stores; 3 joiners shops; 2 paint shops; 1 woolen factory; 1 plough factory; 1 iron foundry; 1 brass foundry; 2 livery stables; 1 soap factory; 2 flouring mills with 5 run of stones; 3 churches—Presbyterian, Union and Catholic, and the last Society are erecting a new fine stone church. Rev. B. Foltze is Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Mr. Wisbaner, Pastor of the Catholic Church. There are 3 lawyers, Lewis Royce Esq., and Messrs. Culver & Bennet; physicians, Dr. Darling, Dr. J. H. Cooper, and one German physician, and Dr. E. G. Dyer, the latter having at the late election, been elected a member of the Assembly.

THE BADGER STATE IN A TRIMBLE.—Messrs. Smith, Dumoulin & Co., of Milwaukee, have achieved this, or nearly this, in their Wisconsin State Directory for 1857-8, just published by Strickland & Co., presenting the Badger State in the smallest compass consistent with completeness and accuracy. To the many business men of their own State, as well as those of the large commercial centres of the West and the country at large, interested in possessing reliable and accurate lists of the business men and business enterprises, the business achievements and business prospects of our noble sister State, we fully commend the work, which certainly commends itself by its good looks, and excellent and genteelly dressed self, the latter due to the mechanical skill of Messrs. King, Jermain & Co., of Milwaukee.

It is a volume of 448 pages, as full of information and hence of value as an egg is full of meat, being a complete mirror of the business and business firms of Wisconsin.—Chicago Press.

Rich Correspondence—Cross's Friends asking for Pay.

The following correspondence has in some way leaked out, and is published by the Waukesha Republican. It will be remembered that there were some disaffected Republicans in Berlin last fall. This correspondence may partially explain how they became disaffected. The names are suppressed, but it is rumored, and we presume there is no doubt but that the first was written by one Charley Ellis, formerly of Waukesha, and a Democrat, to Mr. James B. Cross, and that the "Dr." no other than Dr. Shumway, formerly a Republican, but now a Cross Democrat:

Berlin City, Tuesday eve., Nov. 3, '57.

Sir, According to agreement with you, I got Dr.——to go out and electioneer for you we have been and did all we could for you and the rest of the ticket I would pay him if I had the ready but I cant doe so as I have had to pay all Expenses and get teems to get the votur out in the town of Seneca. I do not know of any one Else paying one cent in this section I have Endeavored to doe My duty I was up in Senica this noon they had out poled one vote against you it went 37 Shanghe last fall.

I promised Dr. he should have his pay one distinctly you will be so kind as to send your check for the fifty dollars to me or him you shall know the result in this section as fast as the news comes in.

Yours,

N. B. It looks well in this city.

Then comes the Doctor's epistle, as follows:

My Dear Sir:

I never before this asked of your party one cent, but went because you wished it, and I could not vote for Randall. We have had a hard time, but think we have done you good.

What Mr.——says is true.

I hope to see you in Madison this winter, in the chair where Bashford was last winter.

Yours as an old friend,

CHANG AND ENG.—The Siamese twins were taken down to Louisville, the other day, to be shown there. The showman who had charge of them gave the conductor but one ticket for the two persons. He replied they had never bought more than one. Conductor must have another. Said the showman, "I bought the ticket for Eng.—Chang can take care of himself; you can put him off the cars." As Chang could not go off without Eng, whose ticket was paid for, the conductor submitted with as good grace as he could.—Cincinnati Gazette.

IT HAD HIM.—We saw a very large cigar smoking a very little boy Saturday. It had got it-self into its victim's mouth and was fumigating him viciously. It was getting the better of him very fast, and had already made him sick of the contest, but the little fellow was good pluck and stuck to his antagonist like a hero, following after it for several squares. Finally it dragged the little fellow into Lafayette Square and got him down upon a seat, choking him furiously all the while, and the last we saw of the two it had succeeded in nearly suffocating him, and had made him very sick indeed of the scrimmage, having fairly laid him out, hors de combat, upon the bench. Little boys having no school to attend on Saturday, stay about the city and are very apt to be attacked by large cigars. Their "parients" shouldn't let them run into danger thus, for we have known several that were nearly done for, cigars getting hold of them and smoking them within an inch of their young lives, the enemy smoking themselves, at the same time, within an inch of the buts in the endeavor to make inquest cases of the little boys.—N. O. True Delta.

STIRRING UP.—We noticed a good instance of the effect of a "conflagration accordingly," in reading the remarks of a worthy deacon at a recent meeting at Boston, who, in speaking of the desecration of the Sabbath, and the apathy of the christian public in relation to the subject, said "he often observed boys fishing with poles, coming home from church, and he thought they ought to stir up the public."—Camb. Chron.

FIRST RATE.—The following sentiment was given at a recent railroad festival held in Cleveland, Ohio:

"Our Mothers; the only faithful tenders who never misplaced a switch."

☞ The Boston Post tells of a courteous clerk, who while collecting fare, came to an Irish lady seated on a chest on the deck, while around her were six small children, including one at the breast:

"I'll take your fare, my good woman." "An sure," said the woman, "an' ye told me I might come—didn't I tell ye my husband was sick an' I must get to him with the childer." "Yes," said George, "but there was but one child then—where did you get all these six." Irish lady—"Sure, an' I got them all where I got one;—where's the har-r-rm?" George passed on, and the woman and children were hooked as dead heads."

PITHY.—In one of his discourses Rev. John Newton has this pithy remark—"Many sermons, ingenious of their kind, may be compared to a letter put into the post office without a direction. It is addressed to nobody; it is owned by nobody, and if a hundred people were to read it, not one of them would think himself connected in the contents.

☞ A good old Quaker lady, after listening to the extravagant yarns of a store-keeper, as long as her patience would allow, she said to him:—"Friend what a pity it is a sin to lie, when it seems so necessary to thy business."

CREAM OF THE JOKE.—The ignorance of young ladies brought up to thump pianos, read love-sick novels and entertain young gentlemen with mustaches, is astonishing. The other day one of this class threw the milk intended for tea out of the window because it had a yellow scum on the top of it.

☞ One of the safest places during a thunder storm is a railroad train in motion, because it is furnished with a conductor.

REDUCTION IN THE PRICE OF THE
BADGER STATE SAFES!

NOT TO BE SURPASSED in any respect by any safe manufactory in the whole country, we have just completed our arrangements for manufacturing the

BADGER STATE SAFES,

Upon a larger scale than we have ever done heretofore by the introduction of new machinery, and by increasing our manufacturing facilities.

FIRE & BURGLAR PROOF!

Our SAFES, as is well known, are more substantially constructed, and more handsomely finished than any other safe manufactured in America, and consequently it has cost us more in getting up our safes than any other manufacturing establishment in the country. But, notwithstanding this, we are now enabled to offer our safes to the public at

AS LOW PRICES!

As any other safes manufactured. The following are the former and present prices of some of our safes:—

No. 1 Badger Safe, present price, $125, former $150,

" 2	"	"	"	"	200,	"	225
" 3	"	"	"	"	275,	"	300

and so on.

The seven tests which the Badger State Safe has stood, both in this city and elsewhere, establishes its proof against fire and water for the protection of valuables.

dec15 CALEB WALL, Auctioneer.

City Auction Room.

I GAVE NOTICE through our papers last week, that I had a large stock of Dry Goods from N. York, from Sixth Avenue, No. 320, corner of Twenty-first st. The goods are all from New York, and no other place; and as regards the goods, they are Watery and Goods; so much the better. They are plain, substantial goods, which we all want every day in our families. The goods are now all open for sale in the store on the west side of the river, formerly occupied by J. L. Brown, where they will remain for thirty or sixty days. It is no intention of mine whatever to open a retail store, although I have as much right to do so as others, as no one has to do as he pleases. I have heard that several of our merchants complain that I am injuring the trade by selling goods so low. I would kindly say to those merchants that the goods are all sold for cash, and they will come and purchase them of me at a reduced price, I will give them credit, provided they can give me good paper, endorsed six and twelve months; or I will sell the entire stock out, which amounts to twenty thousand dollars, on the following terms: One-fourth cash in three months—balance in one, two or three years, with seven per cent. interest, secured by a mortgage on property in our city. But I shall continue to retail the goods in small lots, and all I would say to all of our citizens to go and get great bargains. There is every kind of goods you want at thirty per cent less than ever sold in this city before. Mr. Ayres has the entire charge of the said goods. I attend to all auction business at the old corner, and will give it that strict attention I always have done. Any one having stocks of goods to sell, I am ready at all times to purchase the same. Call on me.

If any one has a stock of Dry Goods, or Groceries, or Boots and Shoes, or Hardware, or Furniture, I will exchange and pay the balance in cash. The title to said lots is perfect.
